

2004 Hall of Fame Inductee
Presented December 2003 Boston, Massachusetts

Ed Gallagher, American Seating Company

Mr. Gallagher had a very distinguished career as a sales representative for American Seating to the transit industry throughout the northeast region. Mr. Gallagher had always been available to help the industry with its seating needs and had been active in working to promote accessible seating for the transit industry. He had been active in a number of trade associations including NEPTA and had served on the NETPA Board of Director for 6 years and prior to NEPTA served on the NETA Board of Directors for a number of years.

Nomination submitted by Frank Gay, GATRA Administrator November 19, 2003. Mr. Gay nominated Ed to recognize Ed's contributions both civically and as an industry leader for the northeast transportation properties.

Mr. Gallagher passed away on November 26, 2003. Thank you to Peter Hefler for his tribute to Ed at the NEPTA Annual Meeting on December 4, 2003 in Boston, Massachusetts.
